

CONTACT:

Brian Suerth
Technology Assurance Group
(858) 946-2112
brian@tagnational.com

Trent Smith, Vice President & GM, IT
Van Ausdall & Farrar, Inc.
(317) 974-7222
tsmith@vanausdall.com

NEWS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Van Ausdall & Farrar, Inc. Recognized as Top 1% Gold Partner out of 15,000+
Other Companies

Leading Managed Technology Services Provider Stands Out Amongst the Competition by Focusing on Helping Customers Navigate the Cloud & Hybrid Workplaces

Van Ausdall & Farrar, Inc., a leading managed technology services provider (MTSP), proudly announced they've achieved the status of RingCentral Gold Partner, which is a highly coveted recognition. Over the past few years most small to mid-sized businesses (SMBs) changed dramatically in how they connect and operate on a daily basis, and in order to navigate these changes, many businesses needed a trusted IT partner to look out for them, simplify complex problems, leverage their deep IT expertise and deliver superb value on a recurring basis to help them adapt and scale. One of the key cloud systems Van Ausdall & Farrar, Inc. have relied on has been RingCentral which enables businesses to nimbly adapt to cloud or hybrid work environments with the world's leading business cloud phone system. This Gold Partner status is a recognition of Van Ausdall's superior dedication and capability to support its customers and provide an exceptional customer experience. This particular status is reserved exclusively for the Top 1% of all channel partners that collaborate with RingCentral and out of 15,000+ channel partners, Van Ausdall &

Farrar Inc. have risen to the top by relentlessly focusing on an improve customer experience.

Trent Smith, Vice President & GM, IT, at Van Ausdall & Farrar, commented, “We’re very proud of this achievement, especially because it highlights how we’ve been focused on the right things for a long time. The expertise of our team is extremely high, which enables us to help our clients adapt to changing marketplaces very quickly. Technology and IT is moving faster than ever before and our job is to step-in as a strategic advisor for our clients, so they can scale, adapt and thrive in an ever-changing landscape.

The team at Van Ausdall & Farrar has been winning other accolades in recent news, which reiterates how special the company is in comparison to a sea of IT companies. While the leadership at Van Ausdall & Farrar is has been focused on the improving customer experience for years, its cloud phone partner has clearly taken note of the company’s initiative. Zane Long, SVP of Global Partner Sales for RingCentral, also added, “We are immensely grateful for your partnership, and absolutely recognize the significance of your contribution to our success.”

If your organization is looking to delegate your IT decisions to an award-winning, strategic advisor and implementer, please reach out. For more please visit www.vanausdall.com or call (317) 974-7222.

###